Global Organizational Consulting
Students gain expertise in consulting frameworks through client projects.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING FOR EXPONENTIAL IMPACT

Applied learning courses give students the opportunity to work face-to-face with clients or participate in real-life simulations as part of their Thunderbird program. Through these courses, our students have consistent opportunities to develop and refine their hard skills through applied learning options.

MOVING FROM THEORY TO REAL-WORLD PRACTICE

Corporate Partners
Students get real-world experience by taking on projects for major corporations.

Global Consulting Laboratory
(MAGAM) & Thunderbird Emerging Markets Laboratory (MGM)
T-birds work on consulting projects in emerging markets while developing leadership, cultural sensitivity and international business acumen.

Global Organizational Consulting
Students gain expertise in consulting frameworks through client projects.

Internships
Students work for major businesses full-time, for at least 8 weeks, on graduate-level projects, or over summers in bachelor’s programs.

Simulations
Real-world scenarios are presented to students in the areas of marketing, finance and strategy—allowing them to test solutions in a sandbox setting.

Modules Abroad
Students travel to specific regions to study local business practices, learn intercultural management skills, and develop international relationships.

THUNDERBIRD CONSULTING TRIPS

Sample Clients:
- Libbey, Inc., in Myanmar
- MEGATITAN in Romania
- ExxonMobil in Angola
- Kapchebet Tea in Kenya
- Inter-American Development Bank in Guatemala
- Anyue County Lemon Development in China
